Karma has no reportable legal or disciplinary history.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Karma is also an independent insurance producer, which accounts for approximately 10% of her time. Karma receives additional compensation for this outside business activity. Clients of Karma in this business activity could also be clients of Forum Financial Management, LP. The compensation received by Karma in this capacity is separate and apart from the fees clients pay Forum for advisory services. Clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation by Karma in this outside business activity creates a conflict of interest. However, clients are under no obligation to purchase insurance products through Karma.

Please refer to “Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations” of Forum’s Firm Brochure for complete disclosure of the above referenced outside business activities.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Karma receives additional compensation as a result of her other business activity disclosed in Item 4 above, but does not otherwise receive any economic benefit for investment advisory or investment-related services beyond her role at Forum. Please also refer to “Item 5 – Fees and Compensation” and “Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation” of Forum’s Firm Brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

Item 6 – Supervision

As a registered investment adviser, Forum administers and enforces a regulatory compliance program, reasonably designed to detect and prevent violations of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and other applicable state and federal securities laws. Forum’s compliance program is overseen by Forum’s Chief Compliance Officer, Allison Tronnes, who delegates advisor supervision responsibilities among various advisor support personnel and teams.

Forum has a dedicated Advisor Support Team, and within that team is the primary point of contact for advisor supervision. Should a client or prospective client have any questions or concerns, please reach out to one of the following:

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) is a professional certification awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (CFP Board). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized for its high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics.

To attain the right to use the CFP® certification, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials. CFP Board implemented the bachelor’s degree or higher requirement in 2007 and the financial planning development capstone course requirement in March 2012. Therefore, a CFP® professional who first became certified before those dates may not have earned a bachelor’s or higher degree or completed a financial planning development capstone course.
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual’s ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct (“Code and Standards”), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to the CFP Board’s disciplinary process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of the CFP® certification. For more information, refer to the CFP Board’s website at: <https://www.cfp.net/>.

Individuals who obtain the CFP® certification must also complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Ethics – Annually reaffirm and commit to complying with CFP Board’s Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, to act as a fiduciary, and to act in the best interests of the client at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge and skills, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must be CFP Board-approved curriculum on ethics.
